

BEACH HEAD 2000™

As a lone gunner you are the last line of defense against an overwhelming onslaught of enemy fire. You will be rattled as your machine gun fires, and jolted as you fire the cannon. Feel the force as you volley missiles at incoming aircraft, and strive to keep an edge on the enemy as you experience the torque of being hit by enemy rounds. Put to life by motion incorporating six degrees of freedom, Beach Head 2000 will keep you on the edge of your seat until the bitter battle's end.

"You've got a winner in the PUP!"

Darrin Vogts

New Orleans Novelty

"Just wanted to take a minute to let you know how impressive the Beach Head PUP has been for some of our operator's. With the smaller footprint

and attractive price,
operators have been able to get the Beach Head into smaller
arcades, truck stops

and bowling centers.
Earnings have been extremely strong in the truck stop locations!

Congrats on converting
a great high end piece
into an excellent
street piece!"

Scott Walker

General Manager

Betson West

"The Pup is going to do well in many of our locations. Beach Head is an awesome game
and now even more
players will get to experience it!"

BEACH HEAD PUP

Beach Head 2000, America's Number One Game and top earner in the arcade market is now available in a trackball upright cabinet. Own the game that was voted top earner months in a row by operators in the Play Meter Magazine Equipment Poll and in RePlay Magazine's Player's Choice Poll.

GAME REVIEW

In Beach Head 2000, the player defends against an all out enemy invasion. The player is situated on a static beach fortification bunker with a variety of target specific weapons and ammunition at their disposal to defend against an invasion task force. Game features an assault force composed of carriers, warships, troops and vehicles, cargo ships, landing craft, amphibious vehicles and landing troops and marines with their supporting armor and aircraft.

Beach Head 2000 not only has the advantage of photo-realistic graphics and special effects to add to the simple satisfaction of shooting down targets but also features realistic machines, effects and sophisticated physics.
