In 2000, the evil genius, Dr. Goldman led his army of the undead in an attack against humanity. He lost the battle then... Will he lose the war now?

You are an AMS agent – a paramilitary force created by free world governments to stop the spread of terrorism and other global threats. You know this enemy after facing him the last time he and his legion of Zombies crawled to the surface. After your last encounter, Goldman went back underground to rebuild his forces for a new assault. That day has arrived.
